Numb. 3129

TUESDAY MARCH 13, 1744.

Madrid, February 25.

THE Affair of the Count de Montijo remains much in the ſame Situation as it did. He has entered on his Office of Chamberlain to the Queen, and goes regularly to Court, where he ſometimes confers with the Miniſters; but for all that, his Diſgrace is looked for daily, being poſtpon'd only for fear diſobliging certain Powers, with whom he is in great favour; which, perhaps, is the chief Reaſon of his being ſo little liked here. In ſhort, it is ſuggeſted, that at the Imperial Court he did not obtain the neceſſary Recommendations in favour of Don Philip, before he ſigned the Treaty of Subſidy; and that, at the Court of France, he did not ſo forcibly maintain the Rights of his Catholick Majeſty to certain Duties ſettled by the Treaty of Utrecht, but left Room for the Miniſtry to hope that they might be put upon an eaſier Footing than they ſtand at preſent. His Majeſty's Miniſter to the Swiſs Cantons, Don Blas Jquer, is recalled, in order to take Poſſeſſion of a very good Employment, which his Majeſty has been pleaſed to give him. He is thought to have the beſt Head in Spain, and was ſent Ambaſſador purely to get him out of the Way of M. de Campillo, who dreaded his Abilities; ſo that many People imagine he is now recalled, in order to be put at the Head of Affairs. However that may be, moſt certain it is, that the Count de Montijo will be by no Means pleaſed to ſee him at Court, ſince he has been always in a different Scheme of Politicks from that Miniſter. Her Majeſty, not long ago, made the French Ambaſſador, the Biſhop of Rennes, a Preſent of a Gold Repeating Watch, ſet with Diamonds, when the News of the Spaniſh Fleet being ſailed from Toulon; though we begin to doubt that News was premature. Notwithſtanding Money is very ſcarce here, we ſent laſt Wedneſday, under a good Eſcort, a Supply of twelve Millions of Reals (about 600,000 l. Sterling) to France: Part of which Sum is intended for the Uſe of the young Chevalier de St. George, whoſe Cauſe is warmly eſpouſed by our Court. When the Dukes d'Arpajon and Berwick ſet out lately from hence for the Army, the Queen ſaid to the latter, My Lord, we make no doubt but you will keep your Word with us. The Meaning of this cannot be explained at preſent; but it is ſince whiſpered, that he will not make the Campaign in Italy, but will continue his Journey thro' France, in order to embark at Dunkirk. Our laſt Diſpatches from Naples are by no Means ſatisfactory; the King is ſo much afraid of the German Troops and the Engliſh Fleet, that he is determined to cover himſelf under his Neutrality, notwithſtanding all the Sollicitations of this Court.

Hamburgh, March 10. We learn from Holſtein, that notwithſtanding all that has been ſaid as to the Count de Haxten entring into the Service of his Daniſh Majeſty, the Thing is not like to take Effect. The laſt Letters from Copenhagen ſay, that a conſiderable Body of Daniſh Troops are ſhortly to aſſemble in the Neighbourhood of Rendsbourgh; but as yet we do not know either the Names of the Regiment which are to compoſe this Body, or for what Purpoſe it is to aſſemble. His Pruſſian Majeſty is certainly in earneſt with reſpect to the Affairs of Poland. He has actually given Orders for ſeveral Regiments of Horſe and Dragoons to take Poſt on the Frontiers of his Dominions, to prevent any of the Malecontents from taking Shelter in his Territories, or receiving any Supplies from thence of Arms, Ammunition, or Proviſions. The laſt Letters from Ruſſia and Sweden are not yet arrived, tho' they were impatiently expected; there having been a Report here, that the Czar had made a new Attempt to obtain a Toleration in his Country, and had, for that Purpoſe, offer'd no leſs a Sum than five Millions of Rixdollars, which, however, I cannot credit; tho' it is reaſonable to believe that the Poliſh Jews would, in their preſent Diſtreſs, give any Thing to find a Place of Shelter.

Hague, March 18. According to private Advices from Vienna, the Court is perfectly well apprized of all that happened in the late Sea Engagement; wherein M. de Court took ſo much Care of himſelf and his Ships, that the Spaniards felt all the Weight of the Action. The Biſhop of Rennes has only ſent De Court's Account of the Affair, but the Prince of Campo Florido has received Admiral Navarro's; who, tho' he was wounded in his Arm, has been at the Pains to paint French Faith and French Valour in their proper Colours. It is ſuppoſed, that the Marquis de St. Gilles will receive it this Day, or to-morrow, and then we may have a Chance of ſeeing how well the Admiral has hit the Likeneſs. In the mean time we ſtarter ourſelves, that this will go a good Way towards deſtroying the Harmony that has ſo long ſubſiſted between the Courts of Verſailles and Madrid. A Rumour prevails here, as if the Marquis de St. Gilles would be ſpeedily recalled, and that we ſhall ſoon ſee M. Van Hoey, who is, of late, grown extremely weary of his Stay at Paris. It is reſolved to fit out, immediately, a ſtrong Squadron, in order to prevent the Deſigns of a neighbouring Power on the Auſtrian Netherlands, from taking Effect. It is likewiſe ſaid, that we ſhall ſpeedily grant another Body of Auxiliary Troops to the Queen of Hungary, in order to enable her to make uſe of her own Forces, to garriſon the ſtrong Places on the French Frontiers.

General Poſt-Office, London, February 8, 1743.

WHEREAS the Poſt-Boy, going out with the Weſt Mail from this Office, was this Morning, between Five and Six o'Clock, attack'd on the Highway at the Staling Place, on the other Side of Turnham-Green, by a ſingle Highwayman, who took the ſaid Poſt-Boy into a Field adjoining to the Road, and opened the Mail, and carried off the Exeter and Plymouth Bags: The Perſon, who committed this Robbery, is a middle-ſized Man, and had on a Blue Great Coat, with his Hat tied over his Head, and he rode on a Sorrel Horſe with a White Face, about Fourteen Hands high, and made off for Acton, the Oxford Road.

This therefore is to give Notice, that whoever ſhall apprehend and convict, or cauſe to be apprehended and convicted, the Perſon who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Perſon or Perſons, whether Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, or knowing thereof, ſhall make a Diſcovery, whereby the Perſon who committed the ſame may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſuch Diſcoverer, or Diſcoverers, will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the ſame Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Poſt-Maſter General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

IRELAND.

Dublin, February 28. Laſt Wedneſday, at the Play of the Miſer (for the Benefit of the Hoſpital for Incurables) there was the moſt numerous polite Audience that ever appeared at a Play in this Kingdom; the Profits whereof amounted to more than 200 l.

The Right Hon. the Lady Viſcounteſs Tyrone, out of a Principle of great Honour and Humanity, has given 50 l. towards the Hoſpital for Incurables; and hath put up ten Beds at her own Expence for the ſaid moſt glorious Uſe; and hath ſubſcribed 50 l. a Year for the Support of them.

Laſt Sunday Morning an old Houſe, in which a Prieſt was officiating Maſs, fell down; by which Accident he was kill'd, and nine others; and many more were greatly bruiſed.

Laſt Week a Proclamation was iſſued by the Lord Lieutenant and Council of this Kingdom, offering a Reward of 1000 l. for the firſt Perſon who ſhall be diſcovered and convicted for enliſting any of his Majeſty's Subjects for Foreign Service, 300 l. for each of the next ſix Perſons, 100 l. for every other Perſon, and a Pardon and Reward of 50 l. for any Perſon concern'd in the ſaid Offences, who ſhall diſcover any of his Accomplices, within two Years after the Date thereof.

Laſt Friday an Order was iſſued by his Grace the Lord Lieutenant and Council, for the Militia of this Kingdom to be arrayed.

Our Parliament, which was prorogued to Thurſday the 1ſt of March, is further prorogued to Thurſday the 15th Inſtant.

This Week we have had more violent Storms, and for a longer Continuance, than hath been known for ſome Time paſt; by which a Lighter laden with Flax Seed, and one belonging to the Ballaſt-Office, were drove on the North-Bull, and both ſunk. Many Chimnies, and old Houſes, have been blown down; and it is feared, we ſhall hear of great Damages being done to the Ships on our Coaſts, as well as on others. It is rumour'd, that ſome Horſes had their Throats cut in the laſt Embarkation from hence to Cheſter; and that a Tranſport Veſſel is miſſing, which Report, we hope, has no Foundation.

Laſt Thurſday the Packet Wherry was overſet by the high Wind, and a Man drowned.

Laſt Tueſday the Roofs of two Houſes in Hoey's Alley were blown off, and the Houſes otherwiſe damaged. A great Part of the Building, and a Stack of Chimnies, in the College, were blown down by the Storm.

Several Cheſts of Arms have been ſent into different Parts of the Kingdom, to arm the Militia.

The Storm being now ceaſed, the Draughts from General St. George's, Col. Degrangue's, and Col. Whitſhed's Dragoons, which lately came to Town, are putting their Baggage on board, in order to their embarking for England.

This Week a Proclamation was publiſhed by the Lord Lieutenant, &c. for putting in Execution the Laws againſt all Popiſh Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other Popiſh Eccleſiaſtical Perſons therein mentioned; offering a Reward of 150 l. upon Conviction of any of them before the 1ſt Day of October 1745; and alſo for ſuppreſſing all Monaſteries, Frieries, Nunneries, and other Popiſh Fraternities and Societies, and for the Diſarming of Papiſts; and offering a Reward of 200 l. for apprehending and proſecuting to Conviction, any Perſon having Lands, Tenements or Leaſehold Intereſt, to the Value of 500 l. a Year, who ſhall knowingly harbour any Popiſh Archbiſhop, or Biſhop. No Searches are to be made, ſave only between the Riſing and Setting of the Sun, other than in Cities, Towns Corporate, and Market Towns.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Briſtol, March 10. Wedneſday laſt ended the Aſſizes for the City and County of Glouceſter, when the Seven following Perſons received Sentence of Death; viz. Andrew Burnet and Henry Payne, for the Murder of Richard Ruddle, late Coachman to Sir Robert Cann, Bart. They were tried ſeverally: —— Burnet took his Trial firſt, and appeared before the Court with an undaunted Countenance and Behaviour: He abſolutely deny'd the Fact; but Payne confeſs'd the whole, alledging, that Burnet had drawn him into the Affair; having, at different Times, offer'd him Five Shillings for his Encouragement to rob with him on the Highway, which he often refuſed, but at laſt unhappily conſented: That meeting with the Deceaſed, Burnet knock'd him off his Horſe, and robb'd him, whilſt he ſtood at ſome Diſtance; and all the Booty he had was only one Sixpence. He lamented his Misfortune in being acquainted with Burnet; and appeared ſo penitent and ſorrowful, as to excite Compaſſion from the whole Court; and his free and ingenuous Confeſſion ſo enraged Burnet, that he ſwore (in the Penn) if he had had a Piſtol, he would have ſhot him thro' the Head. —— Robert Ellis, alias Horſton, for ſtealing a Mare; Thomas Martin, and John Rotherford, for ſtealing a Purſe of Money; and Thomas Chambrey, and John Curtis, for Houſe-breaking, and the Murder of James Mellington's Wife, of the Bowling-Green, in the Pariſh of Cirenceſter. —— The four for Murder are ordered to be executed, and the other three are reprieved.

For the Benefit of Doctor CLANCY.

At the THEATRE-ROYAL in Drury-Lane,

On Monday the Second of April,

Will be Revived the Celebrated TRAGEDY of OEDIPUS, King of THEBES.

The Part of TIRESIAS, the blind Prophet, to be performed by DOCTOR CLANCY; Who has loſt his Sight.

This Gentleman being deprived, by his Misfortune, of the Advantage of following his Profeſſion; and as the Writings he had produe'd for the Stage, could not be brought on this Season, the Maſter of the Play-houſe has been ſo kind as to favour him with a Benefit Night: It is therefore hoped, that as this will be the firſt Inſtance of any Perſon labouring under ſo heavy a Deprivation, performing on the Stage, the Novelty, as well as the Unhappineſs of his Caſe, will engage the Favour and Protection of a BRITISH AUDIENCE.

TICKETS may be had at the Temple Exchange Coffee-houſe; at Tom's Coffee-houſe in Cornhill; and at St. James's Coffee-houſe.
